12th International Harmonica Festival & Learn to Play Day

Whether a Total Beginner or a Seasoned Player, you can indulge in a wealth of top harmonica instruction, headline entertainment, jamming, and trade stands. This year also sees our inaugural Harmonicas for Healing Symposium, as well as our popular children's harmonica workshop and mini-performance.

A highly regarded event in the annual harmonica festival, HBTS offers a Full Day of Workshops for all ability levels. Beginners learn key foundation skills and musical principles from first blows to first bends. Intermediate Players develop fresh styles and techniques, while Advanced Players extend their skills and exchange ideas with our guest artists. Our workshop team comprises Richard Taylor, Paul Gillings, John Cook, Ed Hopwood and Mark Hummel (USA).

Fri 3rd Feb 2023

Afternoon Harmonicas for Healing Symposium : 13.00-17.00

Pre-Registration Gathering and Open Mic : 19.00-23.00

Sat 4th Feb 2023

Electric Blues Jam 14.00-17.00

INTERNATIONAL GUEST ARTISTS

Mark Hummel (USA)

From California, a master of Electric Chicago and West Coast Blues, Mark has recorded and played with all the greats for decades and sounds fresher than ever. The real deal!

Mark Hummel (USA)

From Ohio, by way of Texas, and now resident in Berlin, Kat is endorsed by Hohner Harmonicas and tours her exciting blues show throughout Europe. Prepare to be dazzled!

Ed Hopwood (UK)

Taking elements of Blues, Zydeco, Old-Time and Bluegrass, Ed uses his multi-instrumental skills to forge a sound that's all of his own. A fantastic entertainer!
